Comments from Mr. Parks

Phillip Kreusler (Cryslar married Elizabeth^H Brown Nove. 19, 1762
Records (Schoharie Luthern Church)

Hieronimus born May 3, 1786 (St. Pauls Scholarie) This spelling could be (Geronomus- Dutch

John Cryslar born Dec 18, 1744 married Dorothy Meyers, April 8, 1765
had son Geronomus

Phillips parents were Johan Hieronymus his wife Margaret Brown
they were married 1731 Johan died Sept. 21 1751

Johan Hieronymus was the son of Johan Phillip Kreusler and Catharina Monk

Documentary History page 340 Volume II page 563 lists

Johan Philip Griesler born in Germany 17 1670 came to America 1710.

List of Palatines remaining in New York winter of 1710

Johan Philip Griesler age 40

Catharine his wife age 40

John George aged 11

Johannes aged 7 months

Philip

Third son Johan H. and Margaret Brown, born about 1741 married about 1762 lived at New Dorlack Tryon County N.Y. Phillip served in John Johnson's Regt. joining them at Fort Stanix and later under Col. Butler and later settling at New Johnstown on the St. Lawrence River.

I fail to find Philip on the Butler's Rangers Roster (but according to Cryslar Genealogy Adam, Col. John (Chryslers Farm) and Phillip were brothers)

1904 Ontario Archives Page 1056 claim 972

shows the claim of Phillip Crislor late of Tryon County.

~~XXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXX~~

Note

There is no Geronimous Chryslar on the Roster of Butler's Rangers
But if Geronimous was Hieronymus then Phillip was the U.E.L ancestor,
But if Geronimous who is the son of John, then John was the Drummer Boy of Butler's Rangers. Whether it is John or Phillip, both were U.E.L'S.

There were two other brothers in the Niagara area, William & Adam.
All four brothers talked with a Dutch accent. (W.F.P)

Also there are some discrepancies, If George Chryslar was married at Kingston the name of his wife can be gotten from the Synod.

1. The first part of the document discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all transactions, including sales, purchases, and expenses. It emphasizes the need for a systematic approach to record-keeping, such as using a ledger or accounting software, to ensure that all data is properly documented and organized.

2. The second part of the document focuses on the importance of regular reconciliation. This involves comparing the company's internal records with external statements, such as bank statements or supplier invoices, to identify any discrepancies. Regular reconciliation helps to prevent errors, detect fraud, and ensure that the company's financial statements are accurate and reliable.

3. The third part of the document discusses the importance of maintaining proper documentation for all financial transactions. This includes keeping original receipts, invoices, and contracts, as well as making copies of all documents and storing them in a secure location. Proper documentation is essential for proving the accuracy of the company's financial records and for resolving any disputes that may arise.

4. The fourth part of the document discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all assets and liabilities. This includes keeping track of the company's cash, accounts receivable, accounts payable, and other assets and liabilities. Accurate record-keeping of assets and liabilities is essential for determining the company's net worth and for making informed decisions about its financial future.

5. The fifth part of the document discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all taxes and other legal obligations. This includes keeping track of the company's income tax, sales tax, and other taxes, as well as making copies of all tax returns and other legal documents. Accurate record-keeping of taxes and other legal obligations is essential for ensuring that the company is in compliance with all applicable laws and regulations.

6. The sixth part of the document discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all employee salaries and benefits. This includes keeping track of the company's payroll, including salaries, wages, and benefits, as well as making copies of all payroll records and other employee-related documents. Accurate record-keeping of salaries and benefits is essential for ensuring that the company is in compliance with all applicable labor laws and regulations.

7. The seventh part of the document discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all company policies and procedures. This includes keeping track of the company's internal controls, such as its accounting system, and its policies and procedures, such as its employee handbook. Accurate record-keeping of company policies and procedures is essential for ensuring that the company is in compliance with all applicable laws and regulations.

8. The eighth part of the document discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all company communications. This includes keeping track of the company's internal communications, such as its memos and reports, and its external communications, such as its letters and emails. Accurate record-keeping of company communications is essential for ensuring that the company is in compliance with all applicable laws and regulations.

9. The ninth part of the document discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all company contracts and agreements. This includes keeping track of the company's contracts with its suppliers, customers, and other parties, as well as making copies of all contracts and agreements. Accurate record-keeping of company contracts and agreements is essential for ensuring that the company is in compliance with all applicable laws and regulations.

10. The tenth part of the document discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all company financial statements. This includes keeping track of the company's income statement, balance sheet, and cash flow statement, as well as making copies of all financial statements. Accurate record-keeping of company financial statements is essential for ensuring that the company is in compliance with all applicable laws and regulations.
